

BECOME A SOCCER REFEREE

PETALUMA YOUTH SOCCER LEAGUE IS OFFERING A NEW USSF REFEREE LICENSING COURSE IN PETALUMA THIS FEBRUARY

INSTRUCTIONS TO REGISTER FOR THE REFEREE COURSE:

ENSURE THE PROSPECTIVE STUDENT MEETS THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

THIS COURSE IS FOR NEW, FIRST TIME REFEREES THAT HAVE NOT BEEN PREVIOUSLY CERTIFIED OR REGISTERED.

Grassroots referees can officiate competitive, small-sided or recreational youth and amateur adult matches.

In order to certify as a First Time Grassroots Referee, you must meet the follow eligibility standards: 13 years or older

First Time Grassroots Referees must complete four (4) assignments in the Learning Center, attend an in-person field session and, if over the age of 18, complete an NCSI background check.

- 1) In your browser open CNRA.net
- 2) Click on "new Referee Registration"
- 3) Click on "here" below "FIND AN UPCOMING COURSE"
- 4) Click on the link below the PETALUMA LOCATION

- 5) Click on "PROCEED TO REGISTRATION" (a new window will open: "learning.ussoccer.com")
NOTE: Take note of the date, time and location where the FIELD SESSION will be held.
- 6) Fill out all the required fields and SELECT all three boxes below the comments box (Applicants 18 years old and older must complete the NCSI background check before being allowed to continue with the 4 on-line assignments)
- 7) Click on "PROCEED TO PAYMENT"
- 8) Complete the PAYMENT required information
- 9) Once registered, all students 18 years and older must complete all 4 ON-LINE assignments in order to qualify for the FIELD SESSION. For students 17 years old and younger the SAFESPORT assignment is optional
- 10) Attend and complete the FIELD SESSION. Arrive 15 mins early, wear athletic clothing, use sunscreen and bring drinking water
- 11) Anyone experiencing any issues registering or having any questions pertaining to the registration process, completion of the on-line material or the field session should email Rafael Nunn at rafatheassignor@outlook.com
